

QUALITY POLICY

Allweiler Farid pumps Co. is a leading Company in Egypt, aims at manufacturing Pumps and Units with high quality and competitive price, satisfying its customer satisfaction through safe operation to the employees and properties. To ensure so, the company has established and implements a quality and occupational health & safety management systems conform to the requirements of international standards (ISO 9001:2008 and OHSAS 18001:2007).

The company policy comprises the following principles:

-  Implementing the QHS management systems effectively and continually improve its performance.
-  Setting and reviewing QHS objectives, targets and programs periodically.
-  Accidents prevention to employees and properties through:
 - Study Hazards Identification for all processes and evaluate the associated risks.
 - Accidents investigation & implementing the proper corrective and preventive actions.
-  Continual improvement and employee's contribution.
-  Ensuring better customer satisfaction.
-  Continual improvements in production and sales.
-  Training of the highly qualified staff.
-  Complying with international, local specifications and customer requirements.
-  Complying with local and other requirements regarding OHS requirements.

The company started applying this policy since since 01/12/2008 and this policy is to be revised annually to guarantee its adaptation.

Chirman

Nabil Farid

